

Quality Culture Spreading Plan for the Second Semester of the Academic Year 1429-1430

The Objective	The Activities
Quality Culture Spreading	Preparing instructional brochures about quality to faculty staff members, administrators, and students Preparing posters & banners explaining the concept of quality and its importance in higher education
	Preparing guidelines helping in quality application
	Preparing an annual magazine about quality & its importance in higher education Coordinating visits to conferences, forums, exhibits interested in quality in higher education
	Activating the college website for the spread of quality culture
	The follow-up of e-forums specialized in quality, and activating them in higher education
	Lectures & seminars	Quality & Development vice-deanship definition about quality attended by great specialists in this field	Spreading quality culture among faculty staff members, administrators, and students Concepts and terms in quality and accreditation field Training courses to quality teams in college departments about quality applications Training courses to faculty staff members in (course portfolio, syllabus, program description)	